The network of member agencies of the Rhode Island Coalition Against Domestic Violence (RICADV) provides comprehensive emergency and support services to victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual violence, and stalking.

Statewide Services

- 8,758 individual victims of domestic violence received help and services in 2017.
- 539 adults and children stayed in shelter/safe homes.
- 26,758 nights were spent in shelter/safe homes.
- 228 adults and children lived in transitional housing.
- 21,688 nights were spent in transitional housing.
- 13,196 Helpline/hotline calls were answered.
- 604 children who have witnessed domestic violence received services.
- 715 victims of domestic violence participated in a support or educational group.
- 379 victims of domestic violence received clinical/counseling services.
- 2,833 victims were assisted by a court advocate in obtaining a restraining order.

Educational Presentations

- At least 4,640 people attended 265 presentations provided by the RICADV, SOAR (Sisters Overcoming Abusive Relationships, and our network of member agencies).
- At least 4,257 Rhode Island youth, parents, educators, and school administrators attended 304 presentations delivered by advocates and survivors.